

SAINT JOSEPH HIGH SCHOOL
ANNOUNCES SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

The Administration of Saint Joseph High School has announced that nine students have been awarded academic scholarships to Saint Joseph High School for the 2009-2010 school year.

“These awards are based upon the students’ performance on the competitive scholarship examination administered on February 11, 2009. Of the 125 incoming students who participated in the competition, nine will be awarded $1,000 scholarships which are distributed over the Freshman and Sophomore years”, according to Lynn Domenico, Principal of Saint Joseph High School.

The following students are the scholarship recipients: Michael Brady/Saint Mary Regional School, Williamstown; Christine Deskovic/Hammonton Middle School; Taylor Jacoby/Assumption School, Atco; Nicholas Kilcourse/Ann Mullen Middle School; Marissa Moreno/Ann Mullen Middle School; Tyler Murray/Saint Mary Regional School, Williamstown; Luke Ordille/Saint Joseph Elementary; David St. Ledger/Ann Mullen Middle School; and Galo Teron, III/Saint Joseph Elementary.